

I Can't Smell It ... So It Must Be Safe

Supported by

1. Which of these best describes the smell of carbon monoxide?

a) Rotten eggs

☐

b) Vinegar

☐

c) No smell

☐

d) Sour milk

☐

2. How often are you supposed to have your boiler serviced?

a) Once a year

☐

b) Every 2 years

☐

c) Every 5 years

☐

d) Never

☐

3. Who should you call in an emergency if you have a carbon monoxide leak?

a) Your GP (Doctor) ☐

b) National Grid
Emergency – 0800 111 999 ☐

c) Your Home Insurance ☐

d) Fire Service (999) ☐

4. Carbon monoxide can be caused by using ...?

a) A gas stove ☐

b) A log burner ☐

c) A central heating boiler ☐

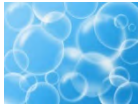

d) All of the things listed above ☐

5. What does carbon monoxide gas look like?

a) Steam

☐

b) Bubbles

☐

c) Invisible

☐

d) A blue flame

☐

6. Which of these should you use to protect yourself against carbon monoxide?

a) Fire extinguisher

☐

b) Carbon monoxide alarm

☐

c) Gas mask

☐

d) A hot lemon drink

☐

7. Carbon monoxide leaks can happen ...?

a) Only at night time

☐

b) Only in the kitchen

☐

c) Only in rented houses

☐

d) Anywhere at anytime of the day or night

☐

8. If you are feeling unwell, and think you have carbon monoxide poisoning, which two options should you contact?

a) Doctor/ Ambulance

☐

b) The Council

☐

c) National Grid Emergency,
0800 111 999

☐

d) Heating engineer

☐

9. If you are camping can you use a barbeque inside your tent?

a) Yes, if it's raining ☐

b) Yes, if the tent is big enough to stand up ☐

c) No, never use a BBQ inside a tent ☐

d) Yes, if there are separate bedrooms ☐

10. Tick any of the things listed below which can be a sign of carbon monoxide poisoning ...

a) Tiredness and confusion ☐

b) Feeling sick ☐

c) Stomach pain ☐

d) High temperature ☐

11. Which of these can also release carbon monoxide?

- a) Computer
- b) Television
- c) Electric heater
- d) Car